

Statement Regarding False News Reports About Our Company in the Press and Digital Media

Recently, certain media outlets and digital platforms have published reports alleging that shareholders and executives of our Company have been taken into custody as part of an investigation into transactions in our Company's shares. These reports do not reflect the truth. None of our shareholders directly holding 3% or more of our Company's share capital, members of our Board of Directors, or executives have been taken into custody. Taking into account the requests for information received from our investors and business partners, this disclosure has been deemed necessary pursuant to Article 9 of the Capital Markets Board's Communiqué on Material Events Disclosure No. II-15.1 to ensure that the public is accurately informed.

The Capital Markets Board's Bulletin dated 16 October 2026 and numbered 2026/70 announced that, following an examination of transactions in our Company's shares on the Borsa İstanbul Equity Market, decisions had been made to file criminal complaints against certain individuals and legal entities, impose trading bans, and revoke licenses. These decisions concern persons conducting market transactions in our Company's shares and do not concern our Company as a legal entity, its operations, or its financial position. None of the individuals or legal entities named in the Bulletin are members of our Board of Directors or executives of our Company. Neither our Company nor the aforementioned shareholders have any shareholding, management, or employment relationship with these persons. Our Company, the aforementioned shareholders, and the members of our Board of Directors have no involvement in the transactions addressed in the Bulletin.

In connection with the investigation referred to in the media reports and the decisions announced in the Bulletin regarding criminal complaints, trading bans, and license revocations, no custody order or decision imposing judicial or administrative measures has been issued against our Company, members of our Board of Directors, or our executives.

Our Company's business operations, relationships with customers and suppliers, and performance of contractual obligations continue uninterrupted in the ordinary course of business.

Our Company publicly discloses information, events, and developments that may affect investors' investment decisions through the Public Disclosure Platform (KAP), in accordance with capital markets legislation. Should any development requiring disclosure arise in relation to this matter, the public will be duly informed. We kindly request that our investors and business partners rely solely on disclosures made through KAP and our Company's official communication channels regarding our Company.

Our Company reserves all legal rights to protect its commercial reputation and the rights of our investors against false news reports and posts.

Respectfully submitted to the public and our investors.
